Young, in prison, learning to love 'Reading'

In the county jail, Patrick's first words to his teacher were, "Mrs. Kuo, I didn't mean to." His 16-year-old special needs sister had been returning home from a date with a 25-year-old man whom Patrick judged to be drunk and high. The man refused to leave when asked, so Patrick picked up a knife left on the porch from a stroller repair.
